Martha's Hospital in order that the whole of his time might be made available for attendance on the Officials and servants of the Dewan's Establishment. It was then under Contemplation to locate Mr. Srinivasaiengar's dispensary somewhere in the City, so as to enable Officials to meet him there at a given hour, he being required to attend at the residence of Officials in more serious Cases. It also formed part of the Assistant Surgeon's duty to accompany the Dewan's Camp on tours &c.

Key 4

In his letter No 2148 dated the 30th May, 1892, the then Senior Surgeon Col J. J. McGann submitted proposals for the establishment, furniture &c required by the Assistant Surgeon. He also wanted Govt to classify the Officials into two divisions according to the pay they drew. Those getting Rs 100/- and more would be entitled to medical attendance at their own houses, & those getting less than Rs 100/- should attend the Dispensary between 7.30 and 9.30 A.M., subject to the condition that all ~~were~~ entitled to attendance at their houses, when their illness was sufficiently serious to incapacitate them from going to the Dispensary.

No orders ~~were~~ appear to have been passed on the above letter.

In November 1898, an Hospital Assistant was posted for duty at the Public Offices for a short time. (Please see Copy of Secy's D. O obtained from the Senior Surgeon's office and put up).

In this present letter, the Senior Surgeon states that as verbally decided by the Dewan, orders may be passed for the grant of an allowance
